Computer Gaming I

The Computer Gaming camp will be a week spent creating computer games. The students will work closely with computer programs and websites to create their own games. The games are fun to create and even more fun to play.

The Computer Gaming camp is a four day session starting July 6 running through July 9. The day will begin at 9 am and will come to a close at 2 pm.

Computer Gaming II

Due to the success of the Computer Gaming camp, Lowell Catholic is proud to offer an advanced Computer Gaming camp. Students will be able to use the skills that they learned in Computer Gaming I to create more advanced and intricate computer games.

The Computer Gaming II camp is a weeklong session starting July 12 running through July 16. The day will begin at 9 am and will come to a close at 2 pm.

Art Workshop

The Art camp encourages its students to explore new avenues for their talents. Students will create various works of art through the use of paint and other mediums.

The camp will emphasize creativity and imagination as an integral part of the art process. This year's camp will be run by LC's new art teacher, Ms. Kristine St. Jean, who is looking forward to a week full of new projects.

The Art camp is a weeklong session starting July 19 running through July 23. The day will begin at 9 am and will come to a close at 2 pm.

Myth-Makers

Myth-Makers is the ultimate camp for fans of Greek and Roman mythology, Harry Potter, and Percy Jackson. Climb Mount Olympus to meet the gods and find out which god or goddess shares your area of power, make a mask of your favorite, and enter the Olympics to win fame and glory!

If you want to make a quest into the unknown world of the Greek and Roman gods and goddesses this summer, if you like to make things and do things, if you're interested in thinking about where things came from, this is the camp for you!

The Myth-Makers camp is a weeklong session starting July 26 running through July 30. The day will begin at 9 am and will come to a close at 2 pm.

Web Show Production

Have you ever wanted to create a web show like "iCarly" with your friends? This camp is a great opportunity for students to feed their dramatic and video creating appetite. Students will learn the ways of writing, directing, video shooting and electronic posting of videos. The week will culminate in a YouTube-ready skit produced, taped, and posted by the students.

This is a weeklong session starting August 2 running through August 6. The day will begin at 9 am and will come to a close at 2 pm.
